

Meet Brien

Age 13

Brien is a 13 year old Caucasian male who loves to make people laugh. Brien enjoys playing outside and loves being in nature. He is very caring and sweet. He is enjoyable to be around. He loves animals and is very curious. Brien connects well with children slightly below his age level. He loves being social and is generally a happy child. He shows an interest in team sports such as football but would also enjoy riding his bike or playing video games. Brien would thrive with a family that encourages him academically. He would like to live in a rural setting where he can play outside.
