

Meet John age 15

John is an intelligent and sweet 15 year old gentleman who is looking for his forever home. John can be very shy at first, but really opens up once he has warmed up to you. John is very creative and imaginative and enjoys writing stories and art. John is very athletic and enjoys outdoor activities and sports, such as football, basketball, and horseback riding. John is very motivated and enjoys helping others. John is looking for a two parent family and would like to be the only child, or the youngest child. John is looking for a family who is active but also enjoys staying in. John wants a family who talks problems out. John needs a family who will support his academic, social, and emotional needs.
