

Meet William Age 14

William is a 14 year old Caucasian male. William enjoys playing Basketball and Football, as well as chilling on the couch watching movies. He has a very unique sense of humor, and loves to joke around. William would thrive in a family that would encourage and help him continue to develop skills for dealing with tough situations. William would benefit from a family that is able to meet his behavioral needs and provide daily structure. When asked what kind of family he would like, William describes a family that is active, but willing to stay indoors watching movies and playing games.
